

MAKING PLANS FOR NEW YARDS

Northwestern Completes Plans For South
Janesville Assorting Yards.

WORK WILL START ON NOVEMBER 1

Fact That Ground Purchased Is Under Lease Until Then
Is Delaying The Construction Work
At Present.

Plans for the new yards of the Chicago & Northwestern road to the southeast of the city have been completed, and work will probably be commenced November first. Though the company is hampered by the scarcity of coal and the forces of employees have everywhere been decreased, work would be started now if it was possible. The cause of delay is a lease on some of the land purchased, which does not expire until this fall. This contract of rent was not nullified by the change in ownership of the property.

Strictly Assorting Yards.
The three hundred acres will be occupied by an immense round-house, a complimentary machine shop and switch tracks. These yards are to be used strictly for assorting purposes. All freight from Chicago for points on the Northern Wisconsin and Madison divisions and beyond, including all Northern Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and portions of Iowa and Missouri, will be brought to these yards to be made into trains. It will be sent out of Chicago with no regard for its final destination. All this means that all through freights, carrying wares from the east and Chicago, will start from Janesville. At present this sorting is done at Fortieth street, Chicago and either goes straight through here or via the Afton-Evansville branch.

Hundred Fifty Local Employees.
Besides the large number of engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen who will be brought to Janesville, and probably be compelled by circumstances to make their home in

FOUR CITIES HAVE BIG CELEBRATIONS

Wilkes-Barre Centennial to Be Honored With Three Day Carnival
—Thousands Participate.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 9.—Elaborate preparation for Wilkes-Barre's centennial celebration have been in progress for many weeks past, and today witnessed their completion. Each train today brought its quota of visitors and tomorrow people will arrive by excursion loads. It is estimated that 15,000 people will be in attendance by tomorrow noon. All business houses and residences are elaborately decorated with bunting and flags, and the parks and streets are profusely lighted with colored electric lamps. Several large floats have been erected on the principal thoroughfares, all handsomely decorated and lighted with electricity. The celebration will last three days and the program is replete with attractive features in the way of parades, literary exercises, athletic contests, band concerts and carnival events.

Peoria Musical Festival.
Peoria, Ill., May 9.—The annual series of May festival concerts began in Peoria this afternoon with an attendance that included many music-lovers from out of town. There are to be four concerts by the choral union, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and some of the most celebrated soloists in the country. The list of soloists includes Marie Kunkel Zimmerman, soprano; Edward Strong, tenor; and Frederic Martin, basso.

Saengerfest in Savannah.
Savannah, Ga., May 9.—Savannah is in holiday attire for the saengerfest of the German singing societies of the South Atlantic section, which opens tonight and continues over tomorrow. The national colors of Germany and the United States are blended harmoniously in all the decorations. Delegations of singers are here from Charleston, Wilmington, Jacksonville and other cities. It is expected that a permanent saengerbund similar to those existing in other sections of the country will be formed before the meeting adjourns.

Augusta's May Carnival.
Augusta, Ga., May 9.—Augusta is filled with visitors as seldom before in her history. The double attraction of the May carnival and the convocation of the Knights Templar of Georgia has attracted hundreds of visitors. Every incoming train is bringing in visitors, and hotels and boarding houses are crowded. Stores and buildings along the main street are gayly decorated and everybody in the city is imbued with the carnival spirit. During the remainder of the week the city will give itself up to a whirl of pure pleasure. Upon their arrival in the city this morning the visiting Knights Templar were met by members of the reception committee and with waving plumes and glittering swords marched to the headquarters at the Albion hotel. The public exercises of the convocation take place in "South Janesville" there will be about one hundred and fifty men employed in the round-house, shops and yards. The round-house is to be composed of forty-eight stalls and a large repair shop will be built. Though the definite size of this is not known it is said on authority that it will be in size to the new round-house, what the present Northwestern shops are, to the eighteen stall round-house now in use.

Present Equipment To Remain.
The new yards will not mean the abandonment of the present yards, round-house and shop. These will remain and not be greatly effected. All passenger work will be done as formerly and much of the freight business. Two way freights, one to Chicago and the other to Fond du Lac will be made up and dispatched from Janesville yards and all transfer business will be done as now. The effect of the new yards on the present local system will be little.

Building Will Be Rushed.
This fall work on the round-house will be commenced. A large force of men will be put at work and only weather much worse than any experienced the winter past, will interfere with the progress. No doubt the building and also the shop will be completed by early spring. The yards will be marked out probably this fall and it will not take long to lay the tracks in the spring. The ground is very level and as the Northwestern company will not let expense deter them. It is safe to predict that the yards will be in use by the middle of the summer of 1907.

FOUND $2,000 IN A POT; PUT IN GAOL

A Real Treasure Trove. Like in the Fairy Tales—Peasant of Spain
the Discoverer.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madrid, May 9.—Like a fairy tale is the story published in the Madrid press this week of the sudden wealth acquired by Andres Gonzalez, a peasant of Calmar de Orea. Struck by the peculiar appearance of a piece of stone sticking out of the ground near his house, he dug and brought to light an earthenware pot full of gold coins. Andres took into his confidence his wife, brother and sister-in-law, and it was decided that the matter must be kept quiet. A few days later the two men set out for this city and sold their treasure for some $2,000. In order to allay the suspicions of the neighbors, it was arranged that Andres should write his brother a letter saying that he had won the money in a lottery. But unfortunately, the women concerned could not keep the story of their wonderful luck quiet, and as soon as the story leaked out Andres received a visit from a lawyer who claimed half the proceeds on behalf of the landlord, to which the latter is entitled by the law of Spain. At first Andres denied all knowledge of the find, but involving himself afterwards in contradictions, he had to make a clean breast of the affair and pay up. But his troubles did not end here. He was summoned before a magistrate on a charge of concealing treasure trove. He was convicted and sent to gaol for six months, while the others concerned got off with sentences of two months each for aiding and abetting the concealment of the treasure.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Boston, Mass., May 9.—A monster petition said to be the largest of its kind ever known in this country will be presented tomorrow to Governor Gould asking him to exercise clemency in the case of Charles L. Tucker, the young man convicted of the murder of Miss Mabel Page and sentenced to die in the electric chair. It is estimated that the petition bears the names of 150,000 to 200,000 persons. For several weeks past the counsel for the condemned man have maintained offices in Boston and in nearby cities for the convenience of citizens desiring to add their names to the plea for clemency. The date set for Tucker's execution is June 10.

Seven Hundred Delegates Represent ing Brotherhoods in Three Nations Attending.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Memphis, Tenn., May 9.—About 700 delegates were present here today when Grand Chief Stone called the biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to order for the three weeks' session. There are also present more than 300 visitors who are mostly members of the ladies auxiliary. Those present represent leading railroads in all parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico. During the following sessions it is expected that much business relative to the order will be transacted. The relations of the brotherhood with the other organizations of railroad employees will be exhaustively discussed and the advantages, if any, offered by a closer alliance will be considered. Today's business consisted of the appointment of committees on credentials and organizations and arranging the details of the subsequent days' meetings. All the national officers were present. Peoria is making a strong bid for the next biennial convention. Cleveland and Wheeling are also mentioned in the same connection, but the indications are that the Illinois city leads the race.

Their efforts have proven so successful that every visitor will be entertained at a private house, and will, therefore, be put to no expense while in Port Townsend. The meeting will undoubtedly be the largest in point of attendance of any yet held in Washington. Women's clubs of all kinds are represented, and subjects of interest to women will be discussed. One of the matters to receive special attention is the work recently inaugurated in behalf of the blind.

BERGH DESIRES ALL THE CREDIT FOR THE SUIT

Insists That He Alone Is Responsible For The Test Of Civil Service Law.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 9.—The suit brought by Bank Commissioner M. C. Bergh contesting the constitutionality of the Wisconsin state civil service law will be argued in the supreme court here tomorrow. The suit is attracting acute interest throughout the state for the reason that it is believed by many to be a political conspiracy to undo the work of the last legislature in establishing the merit system of filling positions in the state employ instead of having them filled by politicians under the old spoils system of appointment for political services rendered. Attorney General Sturdevant, in charge of the case for the civil service commission, has served his brief on the contestant's attorney, R. M. Bashford, and makes arguments based on legal decisions of high courts to sustain the validity of the merit law. The assaillants of the law declare that it interferes with the constitutional duties of the secretary of state as the public auditor, because the civil service law requires the commission to certify to the pay-roll and forbids the secretary of state to approve a voucher for services to the state unless the certification of the civil service commission is attached. The attorney general makes the counter claim that the law does not interfere with the duties of the auditor, merely requiring the civil service commission to certify that each employee is holding

INDIANA LAW IS

NOT PROHIBITIVE

"REGULATES" POSSESSION AND

SMOKING OF CIGARETTES.

JUDGE GILLET'S DECISION

Portion of Abstract From Indianapolis

Supreme Court

Records.

Washington, D. C.—Your correspondent in receipt of an abstract of the decision of Judge Gillet, of the Indianapolis Supreme Court, in the cigarette cases, in which it is held that the Indiana cigarette law does not apply to the act of smoking cigarettes or of having them in possession for the purpose of smoking.

The decision, in part, is as follows:

"After a painstaking study of the statute in question, the conviction has been forced upon us that said enactment does not apply to the act of smoking cigarettes, or of having them in possession for the sole purpose of smoking. Several reasons conspire to lead us to this conclusion:

If it had been the purpose of the legislature to prohibit smoking cigarettes, it can scarcely be supposed that the intention so to do would not have found direct expression. That being within the intent, the smoking of cigarettes would naturally have been the major denouncement.

"Of course, we know that the smoking of cigarettes, at least in some circumstances was the evil with which the law-making power sought to deal,

but as we have no means of knowing whether the end was to suppress the smoking of cigarettes entirely, or to limit their use, by making them difficult to obtain, particularly by boys,

we are unable to say that the legislative purpose could only attain its consummation by holding that the cigarette was intended to be contraband in all circumstances. Indeed, if we may judge by contemporaneous legislation, we may assume that because the cigarette was a recognized menace to the boys of the state, it was deemed advisable to take cigarettes out of commerce by prohibiting the manufacture, sale, gift or other transfer of them.

"Another consideration which shows that the statute cannot have the broad construction which the state contends for is that the title of the act states that it is 'an act to regulate and in certain cases to prohibit,' etc. Now the primary meaning of the word

'regulate' is to lay down the rule by which a thing shall be done."

"The only words in the statute which would be broad enough to cover the cases in hand are 'keep' and

'own,' and yet we find that they are preceded by the words 'manufacture, sell, exchange, barter, dispose of,

give away, or keep for sale.' As to the last-mentioned words, it will be perceived by what precedes them that the prohibition is not alone directed against what a person by himself may do, but that he is also subjected to the penalty for doing the same acts by his clerk, servant, employe or agent, thus in a degree indicating that the prohibited acts may be done for him by others.

"Besides, the words 'keep and own'

have immediately following them a prohibition against being 'in any way concerned, engaged or employed in owning or keeping any such cigarette'

thus suggesting that this keeping or owning which is prohibited perhaps applies to a kind of keeping or owning in which others may be in some way concerned.

"Even the word 'keep' is said to be derived from the Anglo-Saxon word cepan, another form of cepan, meaning to traffic, sell, store up and the like. One of the meanings of the word 'keep' is 'to have habitually in stock or for sale.' It is also to be noted that it is the keeping or owning of cigarettes—the plural number, which is prohibited, a fact that has a degree of significance in view of what precedes. Moreover, it would be but little short of ridiculous to say that a person smoking a cigarette kept or owned it, and even the possession by a smoker of a quantity of cigarettes designed for immediate or immediate consumption, would, in ordinary parlance, be more likely to be characterized as a having of them in his possession than as an owning or keeping of them.

"As pointed out in the United States vs. Freight Association, the attempt to determine the legislative purpose from the speeches of individual members of the assembly, is an open to the objection that each speaks for himself, but here we have both houses approving a title which states that the act relates to the 'manufacture, sale and giving away of cigarettes and cigarette paper."

"The change which was subsequently proposed by the conference committee can readily be understood

when it is considered that the act was really prohibitory in most particulars, and that it was only an act to regulate in the sense that it was designed to keep the traffic in leastly true that a motion failed in the house to amend the act so as to declare that nothing therein should apply to adults having cigarettes or cigarette papers in their possession.

"There can be no doubt that the legislation in question proceeded from the postulate that an evil had grown out of the readiness with which cigarettes could be procured, but, looking at the words relied on, colored as they are by that which is specified,

we are unwilling to conclude that it was the intention of the general assembly to invade the private life of the adult further than to the extent that those requirements of the statute which do not admit of doubt.

"Here, however, it must always be borne in mind that the case is really not within the letters. It would be impossible to find a reason for the holding that the defendants were guilty of violating the statute, except as the enactment were approached in the spirit of winking everything out of it which its words did not necessarily withhold."

This decision was handed down in the case of John M. Lewis, of Ander-most comprehensive in scope that has ever been seen here. It was one of the most instructive and entertain-enough comedy and "human interest" numbers to lend variety. The me-impulse of the warm sunshine.

One Dollar.—The one dollar store

KILLING FROSTS SUNDAY MORNING

Department of Agriculture Reports That Wisconsin Weather Has Been Very Stormy.

For the week ending Monday, May 7, the weather bulletin issued by the Department of Agriculture for Wisconsin says: "The weather during the past week has been unusually stormy for this time of the year. A storm of moderate intensity was central to the west of the state on Tuesday morning, the 1st, and causing quite general rain with rising temperature in all sections. The center of this storm passed eastward over the state during Tuesday night and the rain continued in the northern section during the following day. The temperature fell quite rapidly during Wednesday afternoon and night and a heavy frost occurred in the northern portion on the morning of the 5d.
The weather was generally partly cloudy and pleasant during Thursday and Friday, except for light showers in the southern part of the state on Friday. The temperature rose quite rapidly during Thursday afternoon and the early evening was moderately warm, but by Friday night the temperature was falling rapidly in all portions of the state. During the remainder of the week the weather was generally partly cloudy with steady falling temperature until Sunday night, after which time it rose slowly. Heavy or killing frosts occurred at many places on Sunday morning, and killing frosts occurred also on Monday morning in the northern half of the state. The mean temperature for the state averaged from two to five degrees below the normal except in the extreme southwest portion of the state, where it was two degrees above normal. The total precipitation for the week averaged slightly below normal in the southern section and considerably above in the northern section.

"Our wisdom is not less at the mercy of fortune than our property." Impaired wisdom imperils property; forgetting how to advertise or never learning how—exposes property to the mercy of fortune.

The people of the country will never know how much La Follette's maiden speech in congress was damaged by the earthquake.

San Francisco will do well to consult geologists as well as architects in the rebuilding of the city. Sky scrapers and earthquakes don't go well together.

The Golden Gate city will doubtless be rebuilt, but the 190,000 destitute people now dependents on charity, had better seek a more congenial climate. The earthquake of 1906 is liable to be repeated at any time.

The Milwaukee Free Press is a good deal exercised over a rumor that the Brummers are about to buy the Sentinel. It is currently believed that the Sentinel is able to paddle its own canoe, while Uncle Ike Stephenson is looking in vain for the bottom of the rat hole where he dropped his wail.

One of the latest fads in the Chicago schools is the art of making "artistic" paper lamp shades. The boy of 14 who is about to graduate from the grades and go out into life, to grapple with a hand to hand contest for existence, is obliged to waste his last two months in school on the decorative art. Modern education is a good deal of a farce.

The Standard Oil company will now have an opportunity to vindicate itself before the highest court in the land. The company could well afford to ignore the attacks of Lawson, Tarbell and that class of accusers, but when the government demands a hearing it is a different proposition.

The railway rate question, which is now commanding the attention of the United States senate, has taxed the best brain of railway companies for years in efforts to establish and maintain uniform and equitable rates. Yet statesmen like La Follette can dispose of the question before breakfast and sigh for more worlds to conquer.

The demand for short stories is greater today than at any time in the history of the country and the character of many that are published by cheap magazines indicates that amateur writers are liberal contributors. The field is open to everybody and almost any kind of a story finds a ready market.

There would be about as much sense in the government loaning money to San Francisco as there would be in loaning money to a state afflicted with drought or grasshoppers. The government is not in the banking business and the money in the treasury belongs to the people and should be regarded as sacred.

THE PASSING PHENOMENON.
Mayor Dunne of Chicago was a phenomenon. He was elected to office by his desperate fellow citizens because he was the rashest promiser within the city limits. He pledged an impossibility with a cheerfulness that astounded the American people, accustomed as they are to the habit of their politicians. He was discredited from the time of his first utterance in the minds of sane observers, and now there are not wanting signs that Chicago is waking up from its delusions.PEACE.
In recommending a three years' renewal of the conditions established by the Grey court of arbitration, the representatives of the miners have acted with admirable temper and moderation. Mr. Mitchell is greater in having led his men to peace and work than he would have been in leading them in a strike under existing conditions. It is highly important that this dangerous dispute be carried well over the next presidential election. The coal miners will be all the stronger when another dispute with the operators arises for their moderation now.CHARITY AT HOME.
While Chicago was straining every nerve to reach the $1,000,000 mark in her contributions for San Francisco, a poor family was being ejected from a cheap home for non-payment of rent. The father had been sick for months and the mother and seven children were in a destitute and suffering condition.

This is but one of many such cases in all large cities and while the great heart of the American people went out in practical sympathy for the Golden Gate sufferers, but little was thought of the destitution near at hand. It is possible at such a time to overdo our charities. The stricken people on the coast will be fed and clothed and employment close at hand will be furnished to every man and woman who is willing to work. A large majority of these people were wage earners before the catastrophe and they will continue to be wage earners at liberal compensation.

The poor of every community are the wards of the city where they live and they should not be neglected.

THE ANTI-REBATE LAW.

The Wisconsin legislature passed Anti-Rebate law two or three years ago and the reformers scored a victory for reform. What are the results. One industry at least has been driven out of the state, and others will follow.

Under the old law, lumbermen who hold mills in the northern part of the state were enabled to select a concentrating point, ship the product of their mills to it, sort and reload and forward to selling points at a long distance or single rate of freight.

Janesville was made a concentrating point by the firm of Pendleton and Gilkey and hundreds of cars of lumber was shipped here from their mills, assorted and reloaded for Omaha and other points in the west at a single freight rate. This was no injustice to any one, as all dealers of their class were accorded the same treatment. But the anti-rebate law drove Pendleton and Gilkey out of the state and out of business.

This is the kind of reform that Governor Davidson and his colleagues are proud of. The kind of reform that is cursing the state to day and will continue to curse it until the people recover from their blind infatuation and cultivate the rare gift of common sense.

DAVIDSON THE REFORMER.

Governor Davidson went out of his way to tell the people of the state that he stood for reform with a big R and that he was on the turf as an advanced apostle of the new creed long before La Follette came to the surface.

These declarations were so guileless that no one was deceived. They were intended as a sop to the La Follette contingency and Lenroot will be obliged to go some to beat the new reformer.

Governor Davidson appears to have overlooked the fact that a respectable minority in the republican party is not in love with the new faith. The business men and manufacturers of the state are allied with this minority and these men are satisfied with existing conditions.

They believe in letting well enough alone, and have so expressed themselves by ballot. The only reason why Governor Davidson is entitled to the support of this class of voters is because he is likely to be the least objectionable of any candidate presented by the La Follette faction.

The fact is generally conceded that this faction will present all of the candidates for governor in the next campaign. Governor Davidson has lived in the state long enough to know that the commonwealth is not suffering for reform. He should be able to see far enough into the future to discover that it is to be retained in office that he will need to draw liberally on the conservative element of the party.

PRESS COMMENT.

Chicago News: Having blown off its surplus steam, Paris has settled down to work again as though nothing had happened.

Solemn Thought For The "Boys." Milwaukee Sentinel: "Joe" Bailey, "Dick" Hobson and the other boys should not forget that "Billy" Bryan is coming back in September.

Russia Still Nibbling.

El Paso Herald: Russia can't seem to get cured of nibbling at the Chinese frontier—she has a lot of troops engaged in swiping real estate in Mongolia.

The Mad Hatter Of Paris.

Superior Telegram: Now we know the origin of the expression, "mad as a hatter." There is one in Paris to whom Bont de Castellane owes $12,000.

Would Study At Close Range.

Exchange: Castro is coming to the United States to educate himself in our ways. Up to this time he has been taking merely a correspondence course.

May Be Wanted Again.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The Russian Statesman Witte has the consolation of remembering that he has been dismissed before, and that he has also been sent for with great haste heretofore.

All Scouters Must Register.

Eau Claire Telegram: Mount Hecla, Iceland, is reported to have been in a state of eruption lately. No volcano which fails to get into the 1906 record will be worth watching in the future.

Musicians Would Counsel Delay.

Madison Journal: All the world except the musicians is waiting for the man who shall successfully solve the problem of aerial navigation. The musicians would see the pronunciation of Chopin's name settled first.

Millions In A Reputation.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Little Denmark, with a population of only 2,500,000, sells $40,000,000 worth of butter a year, and half as much of bacon and hams. There's millions in a reputation for producing a good article.

As Yet Imperceptible.

Chicago Record-Herald: It is officially announced in St. Petersburg that Maxim Gorky will be tried there for fomenting an anti-Russian and revolutionary movement in this country. We haven't seen anything of this movement as yet.

Afraid Of Own Loquacity.

Milwaukee Journal: Standard Oil has at last hired a press agent. "Uncle John" and H. H. Rogers finally got thieved out so they didn't dare trust themselves to tell the newspaper men to go to the devil. They were inclined to be too emphatic.

And Vertical Penmanship?

Exchange: A former college professor and author of a book on algebra has been given a ten-year sentence by a Missouri court. Why? Then dear children, should be the sentence of the man who wrote the grammar and what of the author of the spelling book?

"For Ways That Are Dark."

El Paso Herald: Washington police are in a quandary as to whether certain suspicious slips of paper with tea-chest inscriptions are Chinese policy tickets and therefore to be condemned or San Francisco relief subscriptions and therefore, praiseworthy. It is always hard to follow John's curves.

Hobson's Miscalculations.

Cincinnati Enquirer: It is announced that Richmond Pearson Hobson, now that he has won the democratic nomination for congress in the Bankhead district in Alabama, wants to be president of the United States. There is just a possibility that this eminent swimmer has miscalculated the time when he ceased to be a unit of interest in the United States.

Let 'Em Fight It Out.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The Green Bay Gazette believes it would be a mistake for the old-line republicans to put up a gubernatorial candidate of their own this year, and suggests that if they should do so it would "spoil a pretty fight." By all means, then, let the game go on as it has been started, and may the best man win.

Hoard's Indorsement.

Milwaukee Journal: The most favorable word for Davidson which we have been able to find in ex-Gov. Hoard's paper, the Jefferson County Union, is the following: "Gov. J. O. Davidson has appointed Friday, May 11, as Arbor Day and recommends that all educational institutions observe the day by planting trees and shrubbery and by appropriate exercises."

Seems Scarcely Credible.

Milwaukee News: The report from Madison that Candidate Lenroot is contemplating withdrawing from the race, fearful that defeat will be his portion, hardly seems credible. In face of the fact that the La Follette machine is an organization that prefers to fight and remain on the field than to run away that it may live to fight some other day.

Jordan's Theory of Earthquake.

Exchange: President Jordan of Stanford university, which was so terribly shaken up by the recent earthquake, ascribes the disturbance to a slipping of the Sierra Morena mountain chain from 3 to 6 feet along the line of a geologic fault. This chain forms the backbone of the peninsula of San Francisco, and along its base for forty miles is a narrow valley. Jordan says that on April 18 the old fault reopened and cracked the surface of the earth the entire length of the valley, causing the mountain to slip toward the north.

Brothers and Sisters.

The London Queen: It has been proved again and again that a boy without a sister is to be consoled with: and why? Because the mutual society improves both. The boy teaches the girl to be wider minded, less petty and narrow, more manly physically; but, above all, to understand something of the opposite sex. Again, the boy is a hundredfold nicer for having a sister. He confides his little scrapes to her, and she, with her gentle inborn goodness, helps him, and advises him to avoid the pitfalls again.

Question of Shed Capacity.

Evening Wisconsin: Is it possible to shed press comment? It is possible that the high price of lumber sets a limit to the production of tobacco in Wisconsin? The Edgerton Tobacco Reporter says: "The prospective acreage of the coming tobacco crop seems very likely to be confined to the shed capacity growers already possess in the older growing sections of the state. This might not be true if it were not for the high price of building material which each year rises higher in the scale and will continually prove a serious obstacle in the way of increasing the tobacco acreage in all the clear leaf states. There was a time when the curing sheds in Wisconsin held over 40,000 acres of tobacco. How many of them are yet in existence or how many have since been added is rather difficult to say."

Proud, but Not too Proud.

Cassville Record: The Record is now located on Main street, in the old Spoden barber shop, where we have more room, more light and are better able to accommodate our customers and the public in general. We are no longer "The Thing in the Alley" and the several other pet phrases and names which have been applied to us by well-wishers, what's the use; you all know by whom—will no longer hold good. We can now hold up our head, comparatively speaking, just as high as the rest. But don't let this interfere with you calling in to see us. Our quarters are so much more commodious and we can so much better entertain you, that we extend an invitation to all to call and see our office. The entire force has been trained in a manner to make it pleasant for you during your stay here, so don't fail to remember that the latch string is always hanging out for you.

No Highfalutin' Ideas For Her.

New York Tribune: A Kansas girl graduate to whom had been assigned the theme "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy," wrote this essay: "I do not care a cent whether Italy lies beyond the Alps or in Missouri. I do not expect to set the river on fire with my future career. I am glad that I have a very good education, but I am not going to misuse it by writing poetry or essays on the future woman. It will enable me to correct the grammar of any lover I may have, should he speak of 'dorgs' in my presence or 'seen a man.' It will also come handy when I want to figure out how many pounds of soap a woman can get for three dozen eggs at the grocery. So I do not begrudge the time I spent in acquiring it. But my ambitions do not fly so high. I just want to marry a man who can lick anybody of his weight in the town-slip, who can run an eighty-acre farm, and who has no female relatives to come around and try and cross the ranch. I will agree to cook dinners for him that won't send him to an early grave, and lavish upon him a wholesome affection, and to see that his razor has not been used to cut broom wire when he wants to shave. In view of all this, I do not care if I get a little rusty on the rule of three and kindred things as the years go by."

Georgian Nonsense.

Chicago Chronicle: Nothing that has occurred at the south since the civil war has produced so much astonishment and indignation at the north as the umbrage taken by the Georgia people at Father Sherman's proposed jaunt along the march through Georgia of General Sherman. The exasperated southerners wish it to be understood that they only object to the escort of three or four United States soldiers who were to have accompanied the priest. If Father Sherman had come alone, they say, they would have entertained him with lavish hospitality, but as he proposed to bring a squad of United States soldiers with him they threaten to lynch him and Mayor Dixon of Savannah says: "If it were left to me I'd have him caught and hanged before he reached Savannah."

What does it all mean? Is not the United States army as much the army of the south as of the north? Were not General Lee and General Wheeler honored officers in it up to their death? Has not this army been for thirty years as ready to go to the relief of southern communities as northern communities in time of danger or disaster? Has not his army guarded all the great battle fields of the south for many years without objection? What is there new, then, in a squad of fifty men marching through Georgia?

It is all a mystery to us. We do not see any propriety in Father Sherman taking an escort with him and still less can we see any propriety in the people of Georgia objecting to it. We should say at a venture that Mayor Dixon and the rest had made fools of themselves and we only regret that the president after calling off Father Sherman's trip had not sent a whole division down there to march back and forth between Chattanooga and Savannah for the rest of his term.

KICKERS' KOLUM

Editor Gazette: Your timely article in last night's Gazette, on good roads and good streets, is of interest to every resident of the city who has the interests of the city at heart. And who has not?

Strangers who visit our city remark of its natural beauty. With the city built on either side of the river, its neat and well-kept yards, usually decorated with beautiful trees and foliage, indeed make a scene of which every true Janesvillian feels proud.

But how about the streets? This is where we stop and blush and hang our heads. Did you ever go into a city the size of Janesville where the streets, as a whole, were as bad as here? Milton Avenue is about the only street in town that is free from chuck holes and broken spots that are a menace to those who have to go bumping over them if they indulge in the luxury of an occasional ride. Who are responsible for most of these bad places? Those who put in service pipe, sewer, water or gas. Some plumbers who are paid to do good work, to leave the street in as good condition as it originally was, either for the sake of a few cents extra profit, or carelessness, will not, or at least do not do a good job, fail to use water enough in filling the ditch, or do not tamp the dirt enough. As a result of this free-and-easy (I was going to say dishonest) method, we have but to look at our streets to see the effect.

I hope the Gazette will not only publish the cuts of the bad places, but the names of firms or corporations who are responsible for them, so that the public may know who is responsible, and profit thereby.

Support your Aldermen and Street Commissioner. Let them know you are interested and look to them to keep Janesville's streets in good condition.

SPECTATOR.

Editor Kicker's Kolum: It will certainly be interesting to the readers of the Gazette to get cuts of some of the "sore spots" of the street and sidewalks shown up in your paper. It is an undeniable fact that many of these bad places are caused by the laying of service pipes, and whoever was responsible for them failed to do a good job or a satisfactory job in replacing the dirt in the trenches. As those who do this work are, I understand, under bond or agreement to leave the street in as good condition as it originally was, why not publish the name of the firm who is responsible for the bad job? It might be a little hard on those who have made a practice of doing this kind of work, but they would be apt to be more careful in the future.

EARLY RISER.

Those Sidewalks.
Dear Editor: When you are publishing this collection of bad streets and sidewalks to be found about the city do not forget the sidewalk in front of your own office. There are walks and lack of walks throughout the city that need immediate attention and if I may suggest a list of these bad places would be a good thing to publish even if it does take considerable space.

A WANDERER.

PRAISE FOR MINERS' LEADER

Self-Sacrifice Wins Commendation from Church Society.

New York, May 9.—A resolution expressing appreciation of the "self-sacrifice" shown by President John Mitchell and the scale committee of the anthracite miners' union in their determination to avoid a strike, was adopted by the Church Association for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor Tuesday. The hope was expressed by resolution that the "noble attitude of the miners will bring the support of the public to them in their future relations with the operators. The bituminous operators were commended for coming to an early agreement and preventing a soft coal strike.

COURT SOLVES ZION CITY RULE

Belvidere, Ill., May 9.—That Zion City affairs shall be ruled by a committee of three, one chosen by Voliva, one by Dowie, and one by the circuit court judges hearing the case, they have charge until the injunction matter is finally disposed of, is the temporary settlement of the legal battle between the Zion City factions, provided Dowie agrees to the proposal. His attorneys will report his wishes to Judge Wright in Chicago.

It was announced that the attorneys in the case had agreed to a proposition of the court for a temporary settlement of the troubles.

WHITECAPERS PLEAD GUILTY

Jackson, Miss., May 9.—Over 200 citizens of Franklin county charged with being members of a white capper organization, pleaded guilty Tuesday to the charge of intimidating government homesteaders and were each assessed $25 and three months' imprisonment. The imprisonment was held up pending good behavior.

And P. B. Haber of Fond du Lac, Secretary and Treasurer—Nearly Thirty Here.

Among those present at the morning session at the Hotel Myers were: C. A. Marshall of Duluth, P. B. Haber of Fond du Lac, J. E. Williams of Oshkosh, J. F. Leason of Marinette, John B. Arthur of Green Bay, J. P. N. Brown of Evansville, L. E. Schreiter and Louis A. Oren of La Crosse, O. F. Burlingame of Winona, Minn., W. F. Power of Hibbing, Minn., G. N. Greer of Duluth, K. Stusy of Eau Claire, W. C. Tiede of Racine, John J. Pecher of Madison, C. B. Newcomb of Grand Rapids, R. H. Wilson of Beloit, E. J. Kempf of Sheboygan, Frank Fitzgerald of Milwaukee, Philip Adler of Marshfield, and Peter L. Myers of Janesville.

Officers Elected
The meeting of theatre managers was called to order at ten o'clock by President Marshall. The character of the attractions which had pleased the theatre-going public best during the past season; improvements that had been made in playhouses; the literature to be published by the association and distributed among producers during the forthcoming year, giving all information regarding hotels, transportation, rates of advertising, etc.; methods of securing the best attractions at the most reasonable prices for the public; and other matters were discussed and passed upon. It was reported that the territory had been considerably enlarged and the names of several new members were placed on the rolls. In selecting new officers, C. A. Marshall of Duluth was unanimously re-elected president, and P. B. Haber of Fond du Lac, secretary and treasurer. In order to make legal advice in the transaction of the association business more easily available, W. J. Power of Hibbing, Minn., was elected attorney. The executive committee, as named, consists of the president and secretary, John E. Williams of Oshkosh, John D. Cuddihy of Calumet, Mich., C. D. Moon of Eau Claire, Peter L. PAID $25 FINES FOR OPERATING GAMES; "THE LID IS ON."

Martin G. Curtis and Albert Kienow Pleaded Guilty—City Marshal Makes Statement.

Charged with conducting a common gambling-house at No. 5 South Main street on April 21, Albert Kienow appeared in municipal court this afternoon and entered a plea of "guilty." Judge Fifield, in view of the fact that it was the defendant's first offense, fixed the fine at $25 and costs amounting to $2.60. The same was paid. Martin G. Curtis of the firm of Curtis & Kimball also pleaded guilty to the charge made against the firm of conducting a similar establishment at 24 West Milwaukee street and paid a fine and costs amounting to $27.00. Action was brought against these parties on the avowal of R. T. Leaser, in jail awaiting trial on the charge of passing a forged check, that he had lost money in poker games conducted in these places. They were the only ones designated by him and hence the only ones to suffer. City Marshal applied made this statement today: "The card games must stop. The lid is down in this city!" Leaser's trial is set for Saturday, but he may possibly appear in court tomorrow.

LEAGUE EXPELLED SUNDAY PLAYERS

Junior Baseball Organization Enforcing Rules Against Sabbath Breakers.

Two players on the Riverview park team, a member of the Janesville Junior Baseball League, were expelled at a meeting of the executive board of the organization, composed of captains and managers, held last evening. The boys were charged with playing baseball on Sunday, in violation of the rules, and upon admission were compelled to retire from their places on the Riverview nine. There was considerable discussion as to whether they should be expelled or given suspension sentences, but rigid enforcement of the by-laws finally triumphed. The two players in question, Will McLaughlin, pitcher, and Stanley Brown, first baseman, are two of the strongest men in the league, but the Riverview club has taken its sentence gracefully and will enter upon the race for the cup with renewed energy. The Riverview club stands second in the league now and has a most excellent chance of winning first honors.

FACTORIES WILL NOT BE CLOSED

BEING REGULARLY SUPPLIED WITH COAL.

NONE FROM SPRING VALLEY

Shipments Come From Kentucky and Elsewhere in East—Much Through Local Dealers.

Though Beloit is worrying and numerous cities are fearful that the trouble between the soft coal miners and operators will result in a shortage, compelling manufacturers to shut down, there seems to be no danger of the famine affecting local industries. Much Spring Valley coal was used in the city before this spring, while none is being received here now. But notwithstanding the same amount of coal is coming in, the Kentucky and other eastern fields being the source. Formerly, many smaller manufacturers purchased fuel direct from the mines, but as the local dealers are agents for the mines from which the supply is being drawn the coal is being delivered in carload lots to the factories and billed to the dealers. This has resulted in adding to the profits of the coal merchants. This condition is true in many cases, but there are factories among them the Janesville Machine company, which have sufficient reserve supply on hand to tide them over several months.

Mr. Ryan refused to sell. The animal is from a Phalmon mare and the sire is Prince Howe, owned by H. D. McKinney. The horse is pronounced one of the finest ever bred here and promises to make a mark on the track. It will be trained this summer.

MAY FLOWERS GIVE WAY TO MAY SNOWS

Wisconsin, Upper Peninsula and Parts of Minnesota Held in Grasp of Blizzard.

May flowers, May showers, and May sunshine yesterday gave way to a May snowstorm and a May blizzard throughout a greater portion of Wisconsin, the upper peninsula of Michigan, and a portion of the lower peninsula of Michigan. The zephyrs which have steadily been beating King Boreas back into his own realm were massed about Medicine Hat, the home of the good old-fashioned blizzard, Monday afternoon. Old Boreas, himself, by a flank movement, slipped past his enemy and, with one fell swoop, wrapped a large section of the country in the grasp of a blizzard, which for severity was almost the equal of any of the past winter. Early yesterday morning a thunder-storm broke over the region in which the blizzard afterward raged. A heavy downpour of rain was followed by a heavy snow, which the high wind set in motion, drifting it in huge banks in places. Telegraph wires were thrown down, traffic on railroads blocked, and much damage done to early vegetables, and fruit trees in the districts affected.

The force of the blizzard was confined to the northern section of the low barometer district, of which Chicago was the center yesterday morning. The heaviest snowfall reported was at Plainfield, Wis., in the central part of the state, where eight inches of snow fell. At Tomah, Wis., the snowfall was two inches, while all through the northern section of the state the ground was covered with a mantle of white.

Along the east shore of Lake Michigan, from Green Bay north to Lake Superior, the blizzard raged with great fury. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad was unable to get its regular daily weather reports owing to the damage to its telegraph wires. The best information the road was able to obtain was that the entire Superior division from Green Bay north had been visited by a heavy snowstorm, and that traffic was more or less delayed by the blizzard.

While the blizzard was raging throughout the northern end of the low barometer district, temperatures dropped to a low point for May. The coldest place in the United States last night was Alpena, Mich., where the thermometer at 7 o'clock registered 22 degrees above zero. White River, Wis., had a temperature of 34 above; Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette, Mich., both enjoyed May weather that was 36 above, while at Grand Rapids and Escanaba the thermometer registered 33. At Medicine Hat the record low temperature was 74, while Calgary shivered at 70 in the shade.

AVON DRAINAGE MAY BE SOON COMPLETED

Prospects for the Reclamation of Four Thousand Acres Are Excellent.

After a year of delay there is a strong possibility that the Avon drainage canal will be completed this coming summer. If it is it will mean that the farmers of the southwest corner of the county in the town of Avon will have four thousand acres more of rich land to cultivate and the great Avon marsh will be a thing of the past. The project is not a new one, having been discussed several times and small preliminary ditches having been dug several years ago to prove the claims of those who advocated the project. In times of high water the vast territory in the township is covered with flood water and is useless for cultivation. The proposed canal will do away with all this annoyance and bring under cultivation rich soil, increasing the value of the property adjacent. Owing to some complications arising from the recent drainage laws passed by the legislature the project was abandoned last year, but it is thought that the preliminary survey will be completed this spring and the work of construction begun and completed before high water next spring. From end to end the canal will be six miles long with a five-and-a-half-foot depth and a twenty-foot width at the top. It will cost between twelve and thirteen thousand dollars to complete and will run from the western portion of the county line to the Sugar river, where it crosses the state line into Illinois. It will pass through twenty-five farms and will redeem four thousand acres of land now under water the greater portion of the spring and summer. The cost is to be paid by the bonding of the farms through which it will pass.

REV. DENISON TALKED ON NEGRO QUESTION

Gave an Interesting Address to the Senior Class at the High School.

Yesterday afternoon the pupils of the Senior Class of the high school had the pleasure of listening to Rev. Denison discuss the Negro question. The seniors have made the Negro question the topic of several discussions in the last year, in the clubs and in the history class rooms, and Mr. Denison's talk was appreciated by all those who heard him. Rev. Denison began his talk with his earliest recollection of the negro, how he was treated, in the South, the manner in which the negro existed and what his ideals were. He spoke of the change which had taken place in the South in recent years and told what the negro is doing today contrasted with the ambitions and hopes for the future which he lacked in the times shortly after the Civil war. Mr. Denison's talk was very ably illustrated with stories of his own life where he had been brought in contact with the negro and they not only brought forth considerable amusement and wonder but interest that could not be aroused in any other manner. His talk was brought to a close by comparing the negro of today with the negro of a few years ago. He told of the good work which is being accomplished by the colored people among their own race. To show their appreciation for the interest which Mr. Denison had stimulated the class, by a rising vote, gave Mr. Denison their heartfelt thanks, and it was with some reluctance that the class marched to their classes for the remainder of the afternoon.

TRIED TO PREVENT WIFE FROM GOING?

Beloit Man Came Here Just in Time to Bid Deserting Spouse "Farewell."

Last evening over the interurban line two young women came here from Beloit and registered at a local hotel. This morning at 10:35 o'clock they departed over the St. Paul road for Madison. In the meantime a man appeared on the scene. He was the husband of one of them and from all appearances was much exercised over their leaving. At the depot he hunted them out and once succeeded in getting them to leave the train. After a few minutes' conversation, to which the women showed themselves averse, they returned to the car and through the window bid the protesting husband adieu. Both smiled as the train started. He, in response to a few questions, said: "Nobody knows me here and I refuse to give my name. Yes; one was my wife and she was leaving me. I could have prevented her by law, but I am glad now she is gone." The presence of the local police and the fact that Chief Scheibel of Beloit was aboard the train, taking a boy to the Waukesha industrial school, very likely prevented any disorder.

Suburban News In Brief

BRODHEAD YOUTH MAY HAVE LOST LIFE IN FRISCO

Gaylord Goul Was in Ill-fated City at Time of Disaster and No Word Has Been Received From Him Yet.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Brodhead, May 7.—Different citizens of Brodhead and vicinity have felt great anxiety concerning relatives and friends who were in and near San Francisco at the time of the disaster. However some have had their suspense relieved by messages while others are still anxiously waiting. Word received from Miss Maggie Mulvihill, by her sister, Mrs. A. Durris, tells how she had barely escaped from the home when it fell to the earth in a heap of debris. She succeeded in getting her trunk from the ruins and to the depot but the depot burned before she could get the trunk away from there. Miss Mulvihill managed to make her escape from the burning city by boat and was for two days and nights without food before she managed to reach Los Angeles. Geo. Luman of Hollister writes his sister, Mrs. W. W. Roderick, stating that while no serious damage was done in their locality, chimneys were tipped over, plastering cracked from walls and the dishes in the cupboards were broken. B. J. Carliner received a letter from his aunt, of San Jose, stating that many who fled from San Francisco were fed at her home while starving people could be seen on every hand. Robert Home, a Brodhead boy, now at Salinas, writes that, while the destruction was great in that city, he escaped any injuries. J. A. Sullivan writes from San Francisco to his parents in Avon, saying he escaped any injuries. He says the city today is the saddest sight one ever looked upon. Both the place where he worked and roomed were burned. Only those who have felt just such anxiety know the fears of Mr. and Mrs. G. Goul of this city who have had no word from their son, Gaylord, who was in the ill-fated city. The hotel where he was stopping was burned and although his parents have written often and patiently awaited news from home, no word has been received.

STOP DRINKING.

Orrine Will Destroy All Desire For "Whiskey Or Beer—A Guaranteed Cure."

Nearly every drinking man thinks that sometime he will quit. He often swears off, but can not resist the craving for drink, and the disease, for this is what is really is, becomes so firmly fixed that it cannot be cured without medical treatment.

A Michigan druggist, H. G. Coleman, has made a thorough study of the various cures for the liquor habit, and gives this as a result of his investigations: "Before taking the agency of Orrine, I went to considerable trouble to learn about it and became confident that it was a thoroughly honest preparation and put out by an honorable firm. I have sold it for years and can truthfully say that my confidence in it grows stronger the more I see of its results. I believe that any man who really desires to be cured of the liquor habit can cure himself with the help of Orrine and be rid of the bad effects which the habit has upon himself and family."

Orrine is in two forms, No. 1, the secret remedy which can be given without the knowledge of the patient; No. 2, for those who take the remedy of their own free will. A cure is absolutely guaranteed with either form of treatment. Write for free pamphlet on the cure of alcoholism to the Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. In every box is a registered guarantee which entitles you to a refund of your money if Orrine fails to effect a cure. The price of either form is $1 a box.

Orrine is for sale by the People's Drug Co.

The Brethren

By RIDER HAGGARD,
Author of "She," "King Solomon's Mine," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1903-1904, BY RIDER HAGGARD

"May it lead us nowhere worse," answered Godwin.

When the sun was fully up they prepared to go out again, taking with them the gold to pay the Arab, but on "Farewell, Flame, and farewell, Smoke."

opening the door of their room they met Masouda, apparently about to knock upon it.

"Whither go you, friends Peter and John, and so early?" she asked, looking at them with a smile.

"To visit our horses and pay your uncle, the Arab, his money," answered Wulf.

"Indeed! I thought I saw you do the first an hour ago, and as for the second it is needless. Son of the Sand has gone."

"Gone! With the horses?"

"Nay, he has left them behind."

"Did you pay him, then, lady?" asked Godwin.

"It was easy to see that Masouda was pleased at this courteous word. 'Why do you call me lady?' Sir Godwin D'Arcy, who am but an innkeeper, for whom sometimes men find hard names? Well, perhaps I was a lady once before I became an innkeeper. I thank you." Then, stepping back a foot or two toward the door, which she had closed behind her, she made a curtsey so full of dignity and grace that any who saw it must be sure that, wherever she might dwell, Masouda was not bred in lins.

Godwin returned the bow, doffing his cap. Their eyes met, and in hers he learned that he had no treachery to fear from this woman, whatever else he might have to fear. Indeed, from that moment, however black and doubtful seemed the road, he would have trusted his life to her, for this was the message written there, a message which she meant that he should read. Yet at his heart he felt terribly afraid.

Wulf, who saw something of all this and guessed more, also was afraid. To his fancy that look was like a flash of lightning upon a dark night.

Now the widow Masouda was saying in her usual somewhat hard voice:

"No; I did not pay him. At the last he would take no money; but, having passed it, neither would he break his word. So I made a bargain with him on behalf of both of you. It is this—that if you and these horses should live and the time comes when you have no more need of them you will cause it to be cried in the market place, of whatever town is nearest to you, by the voice of the public crier that for six days they stand to be returned to him who lent them. Then if he comes not they can be sold, which must not be sold or given away to any one without this proclamation. Do you consent?"

"Aye," answered both of them, but Wulf added, "Only we should like to know why the Arab Son of the Sand, who is your kinsman, trusts his glorious horses to us in this fashion."

"Your breakfast is served," his guests, answered Masouda in tones that rang like the clash of metal, so steadily were they. Whereof Wulf shook his head and followed her into the eating room, which was now empty.

Most of that day they spent with their horses. In the evening, this time unaccompanied by Masouda, they rode out for a little way, though rather doubtfully, since they were not sure that these beasts, which seemed to be almost human, would not take the bits between their teeth and rush with them back to the desert whence they came. But, although from time to time they looked about them for their master, the Arab, whinnying as they looked, this they did not do or show vice of any kind. Indeed, two ladies' palfreys could not have been more quiet.

The morrow was a Sunday, and attended by Masouda's slave, without whom she would not suffer them to walk in the town, the brethren went to mass in the big church which once had been a mosque, wearing pilgrims' robes over their mail.

They heard the bishop of the town preach a sermon from which they learned much. He spoke at length of the great coming war with Saladin, whom he named anticrist. Moreover, he prayed them all to compose their differences and prepare for that awful struggle.

"Four full days have gone by. Let us ask our hostess if she has any news for us," said Wulf as they walked back to the inn.

As if chance, there was no need for when they entered their chamber they found Masouda standing in the center of it, apparently lost in thought.

"I have come to speak with you," she said. "I have leave for you to go to visit Al-Je-bal, but I counsel you not to go, since it is dangerous. Let us be open with one another. I know your object. I knew it an hour before ever you set foot upon this shore, and that is why you were brought to my house. You would seek the help of the lord Sinan against Salah-ed-din, from whom you hope to rescue a certain great lady of his blood, who is your kinswoman and whom both of you desire in marriage. The trader Thomas is a spy. To him your story has been passed on by other spies in England, and he passed it on to me."

"Are, then, you a spy also, as the porter called you?" asked Wulf outright.

"I am what I am," she answered coldly. "Perhaps I also have sworn oaths and serve as you serve. Who my master is or why I do so is naught to you. But I like you well. Therefore I warn you that the lord Al-Je-bal is one who takes payment for what he gives, and that this business may cost you your lives."

"You seem to know our story," said Godwin, "and the mission to which we are sworn. You talk of our lives. Well, we hold our lives in trust, and when they are asked of us we will yield them up, having done all that we may do."

"But why would you go to Al-Je-bal?" answered Masouda.

"Because our uncle at his death bade us so to do without fail, and, having no other counsel, we will take that of his spirit, let come what may."

"Well spoken. Then to Al-Je-bal you shall go, and let come what may to all three of us!"

"To all three of us?" said Wulf.

"What, then, is your part in this matter?"

"I do not know, but perhaps more than you think. At least I must be your guide."

"Do you mean to betray us?" asked Wulf bluntly.

"Ask your brother if he thinks that I mean to betray you. No; I mean to save you, if I can. Pilgrims to the fearful shrine of Al-Je-bal, if it pleases you, we will ride at nightfall. Do not trouble about food and such matters. I will make preparation, but we go alone and secretly. Take only your arms and what garments you may need; the rest I will store, and for it give you my receipt. Now I go to make things ready. See, I pray of you, that these horses, Flame and Smoke are saddled by sunset."

"At sundown, accordingly, the brethren stood waiting in their room. They were fully armed beneath their rough pilgrims' robes. Also the saddles of carpet which Masouda had given them were packed, with such things as they must take.

Presently the door opened, and a young man stood before them clothed in the rough camel hair garment, or burnoose, which is common in the east.

"What do you want?" asked Godwin.

"I want you, brothers Peter and John," was the reply, and they saw that the slim young man was Masouda. "Henceforth be pleased to forget the widow Masouda and until we reach the land of Al-Je-bal to remember that I am your servant, a half breed from Jaffa named David, of no religion—or of all."

In the stable the horses stood saddled, and near to them another—a good Arab—and two laden Egyptian mules, but no attendant was to be seen. They brought them out and mounted. Masouda riding like a man and leading the mules, of which the head of one was tied to the tail of the other. Five minutes later they were clear of Beirut, and through the solemn twilight hush followed the road, whereon they had tried the horses toward the Dor river, three leagues away, which Masouda said they would reach by moonrise.

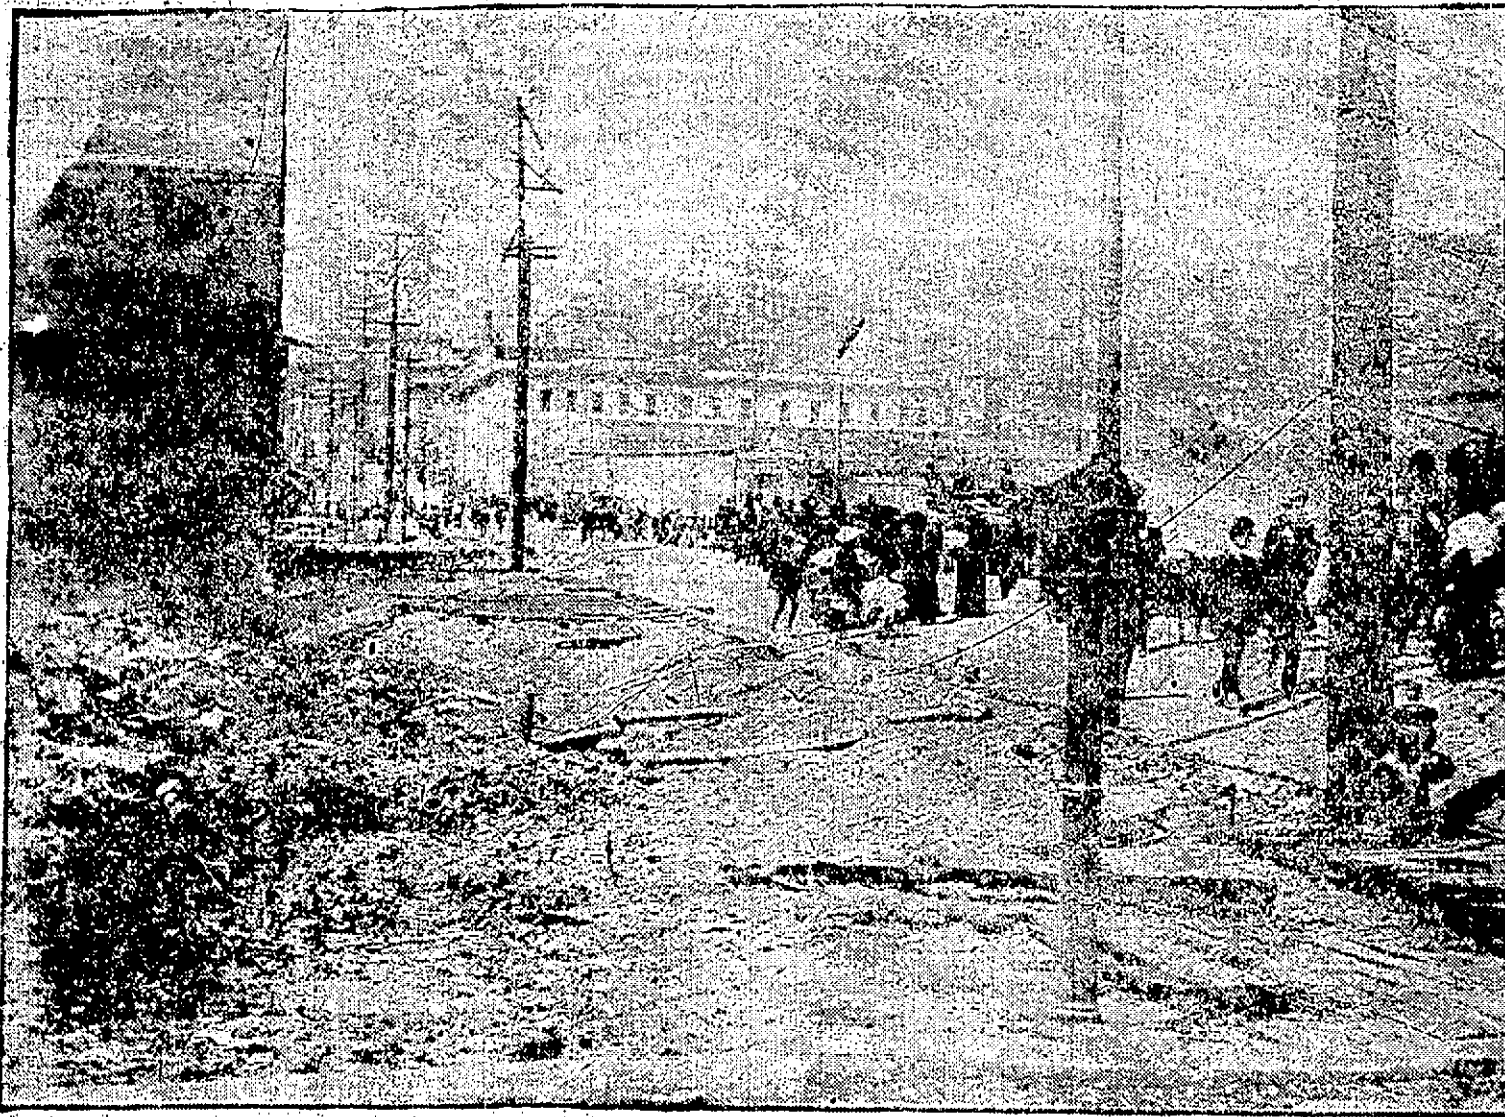

Soon it grew very dark, and she rode alongside of them to show them the path, but they did not talk much. Picking their way along the stony road at a slow amble, they crossed the bed of two streams, then almost dry, till at length they heard running water sounding above that of the slow wash of the sea to their left, and Masouda bade them halt. So they waited until presently the moon rose in a clear sky, revealing a wide river in front.

"Follow me," said Masouda, "for I know the ford, and at this season the stream is not deep. Pilgrim Peter, ride you at my side in case I should be washed from the saddle, and Pilgrim John, come you behind, and if they hang back prick the mules with your sword point."

Wild Flowers

Yellowstone is truly one of the "Seven Wonders." As a place of grandeur and scenery it is unsurpassed by the famous Alps. Wild flowers abound there in great profusion. In order to furnish the public with a souvenir within reach of all, the Northern Pacific railway has prepared a dainty publication, containing twelve specimens of the most beautiful wild flowers in the park, which have been pressed and mounted in portfolio form. This attractive souvenir, which also contains six full page halftone illustrations, will be mailed prepaid upon receipt of 50c. A. M. Cleland, General Passenger Agent, St. Paul, Minnesota.

RHEUMATISM

ALMOST AS COMMON IN SUMMER AS IN WINTER.

While the damp, cold, changing weather of Winter intensifies the pains and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism, it is by no means a winter disease exclusively. Through the long months of Summer its wandering pains and twitching nerves are felt by those in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has accumulated.

Rheumatism is a disease that involves the entire system. Its primary cause results from the failure of the eliminative organs, the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, to carry out of the system the urea, or natural refuse matter. This coming in contact with the different acids of the body forms uric acid which is taken up and absorbed by the blood. This acid causes fermentation of the blood, making it sour and unfit for properly nourishing the body, and as this vital stream goes to every nook and corner of the body, the poison is distributed to all parts. The nervous system weakens from lack of rich, pure blood, the skin becomes feverish and swollen, the stomach and digestion are affected, the appetite fails and a general diseased condition of the entire system is the result.

Not only is Rheumatism the most painful of all diseases, with its swollen, stiff joints, throbbing muscles and stinging nerves, but it is a formidable and dangerous trouble. If the uric acid is allowed to remain in the blood, and the disease becomes chronic, chalky deposits form at the joints, and they are rendered immovable and stiff, and the patient left a helpless cripple for life. Every day the poison remains in the system the disease gets a firmer hold. The best time to get rid of Rheumatism is in warm weather; because then the blood takes on new life and the skin is more active and can better assist in the elimination of the poisons. With the proper remedy to force the acid out of the blood, and at the same time build up and strengthen the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels and other organs of the body, Rheumatism can be permanently cured. External applications relieve the pain and temporarily reduce the inflammation, and for this reason are desirable, but they cannot have any effect on the disease. The blood is poisoned and the blood must be treated before a cure can be effected.

S. S. S., a remedy made from roots, herbs and barks, is the best treatment for Rheumatism. It goes into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by neutralizing the acid and driving it out, and building up the sour blood so it can supply nourishment and strength to every part of the body, it cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. is the only safe cure for the disease; being purely vegetable, it will not injure the system in the least, as do those medicines which contain Potash or some other mineral ingredient. S. S. S. tones up every part of the body by its fine tonic properties. While cleansing the blood of all poisons it builds up the appetite and digestion, soothes the excited nerves, reduces all inflammation, relieves pain and completely cures Rheumatism in every form—Muscular, Inflammatory, Articular or Sciatic. If you are worried with the nagging pains of Rheumatism, do not wait for it to become chronic, but begin the use of S. S. S. and purge the blood of every particle of the poison. CHINESE TRADE DOUBLE THAT OF PREVIOUS YEAR

Surprise Expressed at Peking Over Fear Entertained in America Regarding Alleged Embargo.

Peking, May 9.—The statements to the effect that there is apprehension in the United States that the boycott of American goods is growing have caused surprise here. All the information obtainable shows that the movement is waning.

The Chinese customs report for 1905 just issued, shows that the American imports were $77,000,000, valued, compared with $20,000,000 in 1904.

It appears that the importers made enormous speculative purchases early in the year, chiefly in anticipation of war demands and a decrease in imports would be natural under any circumstances until these stocks are distributed.

The report says that the result of the boycott is not what had been expected. Much suspicion and hostility were created, but the general verdict is that not much injury has been done to American manufacturers or merchants. The final effect of the boycott, however, cannot be judged until the close of another year, or even later. Only the immediate results are visible.

In consequence of chaotic war and boycott conditions combined there is a larger proportion of imports than usual left in first hands.

The imports of American cotton increased from 3,700,000 to 12,500,000 pieces and flour about the same as in 1904, but the Australian trade is growing. The market for oil decreased 3,419,000 gallons from the immense import of 1904. The failure of the Russian supply negated the boycott.

Consul General Lay at Canton, reports that American imports into southern China during the last half of 1905 decreased $1,250,000, oil decreasing 50 per cent. The friction between the Standard Oil company's agents and the officials and merchants at several ports probably contributed to this decrease.

Cincinnati, May 9.—Charles C. Daves, former comptroller of the currency, in a speech before the Bankers' club Tuesday night declared the Sherman anti-trust law a dead letter and a discouraging influence to business.

ST. PETERSBURG POLICE WATCH FOR DYNAMITERS

Wholesale Arrests Are Made in Anticipation of Czar's Official Appearance at Capital.

St. Petersburg, May 9.—Although there are few surface indications of the fact an earnest duel is in progress between the police and terrorists and revolutionists who are thronging to the capital alert for any opportunity to strike Emperor Nicholas or other marked men among the officials gathered here for the opening of the national parliament.

Precautionary measures on an extensive scale have been taken. The police have been reinforced by the keenest men from interior cities.

The railroads are being watched most diligently, but a search of the baggage of three members of the lower branch of the parliament was the only public incident in a campaign Tuesday by which several terrorists were so quietly bagged that the general public was not aware of the arrests.

In order to safeguard the emperor in his passage up the river on Thursday the time of his arrival and departure is being kept a dead secret.

The Nicholas palace bridges through draws of which the imperial yacht must pass, will be closed to traffic from daylight of Thursday until the departure of the emperor.

The general public will not even be admitted to a long distance view of the yacht from the palace of the admiralty or the quays lining the river front, admission to which and to the palace square will be by ticket only.
